

Year 2004

Career Development Centre celebrates 6th anniversary

On 15th of September this year, Mrs. Samanthika Pathirage hosted an opulent dinner dance at the Galle Face Hotel in celebration of the 6th anniversary of her migration consultancy service- Career Development Centre.

The gathering that celebrated the festive occasion was of a wide assortment ranging from dignitaries of private sector institutions to media professionals, friends and well-wishers to clients who have been successful candidates.

Mr. Lalith De Silva, Chairman of Asia Hotel

school and Mr. Rohan Nayakkara, Chairman of Ceylon Carriers graced the evening as Guests of Honour. The opening address was made by Mr. Royce Weerasinghe who graciously welcomed the guests on behalf of the hostess and briefed all present with a bit of general history and background of Mrs. Samanthika Pathirage's establishment and its operations.

Located at 425/1 Have-lock Road, Colombo 6, CDC is a front-runner amongst the numerous migration agents operating in Sri Lanka. Boasting of a widespread client base from practically every corner of the Island, it has proved itself competent and furthermore, a reliable agent in fulfilling the different visa requirements of its ever increasing clientele.